The Garden of Hope

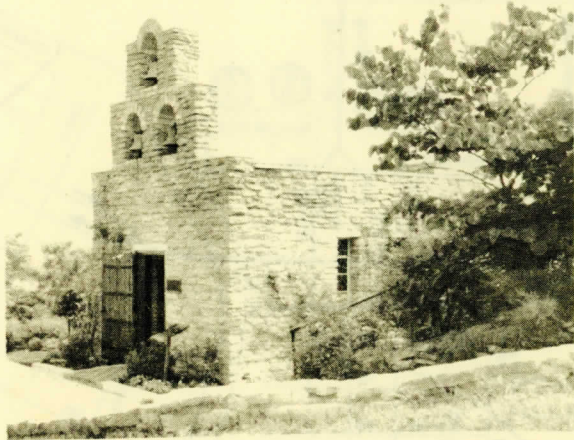

High on a hilltop on Edgecliff Drive, Covington, Kentucky, lies one of the most beautiful, picturesque and spectacular spots in America...

THE GARDEN OF HOPE

"Nothing Like It In America"

The Chapel of Dreams

In the midst of the Garden is a small Chapel known as the Chapel of Dreams. This structure is patterned after a Spanish Mission Church, built in the year 1620.

The Chapel is one-fifth the size of the original mission church.

It is used for small weddings, meditation and prayer.

A pink stone at the altar is from the Horns of Hatten in the Holy Land, and comes from the mountain where Christ preached the Sermon on the Mount. On this stone couples, will stand when marriage ceremonies are performed.

Also in The Garden Is...

A beautiful statue of Christ preaching the Sermon on the Mount. A stone from the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem. A stone from the River Jordan and a stone from the site of the Good Samaritan Inn.

*And, behold
for the angel of the Lord descend rolled back the stone from the door
...And the angel answered not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus not here: for He is risen, as he said the Lord lay.*

The Carpenter Shop

The Shop is constructed of Kentucky stone, and gives the effect of a building as it would have been built two thousand years ago. The heavy doors are hand made, then scorched and oil treated. The beams are hand hewn.

The tools in the Carpenter's Shop are from Nazareth and are many hundreds of years old. They were given by Prime Minister Ben Gurion of Israel for the Garden of Hope. This illustrates how men of every faith — Jew and Gentile, Catholic and Protestant — recognizing its spiritual significance for all, have contributed toward its building.

And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it...

...And the angel answered and said unto the women, fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for He is risen, as he said. Come, see, the place where the Lord lay.

Matthew 28:2-6
