Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\rightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THIS SOUVENIR contains some Views of the wonderful Cyclorama of Jerusalem on the day of the Crucifixion, now on exhibition in Montreal.

A few years ago Herr Bruno Piglhein, the distinguished German painter, in company with a body of learned men, left Europe for Palestine to make researches and gather data for a Cyclorama that should stand at the head of all cycloramic art. The result is the world-renowned Cyclorama of Jerusalem on the day of the Crucifixion, which has been open to the public in the city of Munich for the past four years. Now, while the originators of the Cyclo-rama in Montreal did not strictly copy the great work of Herr Bruno Siglheim, they did develop the central thought of his creation, and profit by the results of his years of study and investigation. The best artists obtainable were employed. The canvas, four hundred feet long by fifty feet high, was painted in a building specially erected for it. A railroad track was laid at its base and cars put upon it, from which the artists did their work. They used three and a half tons of paints and oils. The original painting cost nearly $100,000.

The Cyclorama presents the Holy City as it was rebuilt and beautified by Herod the Great. The temples and palaces, walls and towers, gates and gardens, show Roman and Grecian culture.

The country around Jerusalem was taken from photographs. The Mountains of Moab, east of the Dead Sea, from which Moses viewed the Promised Land Mizpah, north of the city: Mount Zion, Mount Moriah, the Mount of Olives, the Hill of Evil Council, with all the other hills, valleys and plains, are correct in every particular. Then there are the surging multitudes in their gorgeous robes, the donkeys and camels in their curiously constructed trappings, the caravan on its march or in camp, the street-side merchant and water vender, the leper and beggar, all of which afford a most perfect view of Oriental life. And to crown the whole scene with a living portraiture of that transcendent event on Golgotha, when the sun withdraws his light, and the reeling earth and opening graves proclaim the Son of God, creates at once the most sublime and touching spectacle ever witnessed by man.

To the Manager Cyclorama Company :

DEAR SIR,—During the period of my service in the Turkish army, I had occasion to visit the Holy Land in a professional capacity, and having just seen your Cyclorama of Jerusalem on the day of the Crucifixion, am able to testify to the astonishing vraisemblance of the illustration. Eastern scenes are usually depicted in so grotesque a manner as to draw the derision of all Oriental travellers. But the people, the caravans, the buildings, and the general tone both of buildings, atmosphere and costumes in your Cyclorama are so true that the spectacle is both admirable and instructive.

Yours truly, J. DREW GAY, Colonel Ottoman Service.

" I consider it one of the most beautiful and wonderful representations of the Crucifixion scene and surroundings I ever saw, and recommend everybody to see it."

MONSIGNOR LEMMENS, R. C. Bishop, Br. Col.
